September 2018

Dear Friends

What a lovely summer! And I don't just mean the weather. We have been busy with a variety of activities, not least our building works. I feel I have watched the "stubby" tower be replaced plank by plank, and it's great to see the roof tiles now going on about the office.

Our sanctuary is moving towards completion. The bulk of the work within it has now been completed, and we are now looking at the things that will impact on our use of the building. We now will think about the lighting, flooring, sound-system etc. but all being well, we are looking towards returning to Govan Cross for worship for Christmas.

To get us there, we will have a final push on fundraising and grant applications, but we have been endowed with great generosity, particularly by our own congregation, and so as God has provided, we have faith that what we need will be given.

Returning to Govan Cross will bring some changes. The space we will have is very different to the space we presently use at Linthouse. The building itself, because of the impact of the rot works, means that it is different to what we once knew.

We will though be taking time to "settle" in. it is a bit like moving to a new house, you must think where you place things, and how get the best from the space. We are already committed to increasing our use of our building and open ourselves up to the community around..... please do read Jamie's article in this newsletter, as he gives more details of our next project. Again, we are still in the early stages of exploring how this might happen, and we will be engaging in a Congregational Conversation to help you have your say..... Watch this space, and we will tell you more, when we have more details.

One of our main activities this year has been our "An Untold Story" Art Exhibition. We had several workshops led by artist Veronica Jane Lynch, culminating in the exhibition in the former RBS bank during the European Championships. Nearly 500 people viewed the exhibition which featured artwork from our youth organisations, Messy Mondays, the Meeting Place and local schools. Our artists were aged from 2 – 92, and many more contributed to the development of the painted glass that will feature in the refurbished Govan Cross building.

During this time, we heard many different stories about life in both Govan and in the church in years gone by. Those stories now become intertwined into our present stories and add to the history which future generations will recount.

Our faith is about our story with God, of his love and faithfulness to us, and of our response to that love. In the unfolding of the new building, we will have new stories, that will be ours to share. Our past is important, giving us foundations to build on, but what we do now is equally important. We shape the future.

I am excited by the possibilities we have as a congregation before us, and I am grateful for the energy, enthusiasm, and insights of our elders and those leading our organisations who have helped sustain our congregation through these years of disruption.

It was delightful news to hear that one of our own had been recognised in the Queen's Birthday Honours. Sandra MacDonald, our Girls' Brigade Captain and an elder, has been awarded a MBE for her services to both Girls' Brigade and Govan and Linthouse Parish Church. Well done Sandra, and enjoy your trip to Windsor. We look forward to seeing both the MBE, and maybe even catch a glimpse of your hat!

We also send congratulations to Girls' Brigade Scotland who celebrate their 125th anniversary this year. Several of our officers, and some past officers of both the 10th Glasgow and the 34th Glasgow gathered either for afternoon tea or for the award dinner in Glasgow recently. Karen Stevely gained her Ruby service award for 40 years' service as an officer. Again, well done Karen!

With all good wishes

Eleanor McMahon

Interim Minister

Dear Govanites and other Pilgrims,

It is with a heavy heart I take note of the short time left on my placement here at Govan & Linthouse Parish Church. My final Sunday will be on 26th August, during which I will lead the whole service and preach. My time here at Govan has been challenging but heart-warming; challenging because of the many strains on my personal life at this time e.g. chicken pox of all of my four children and a sudden illness of my mother; Heart-warming because I got to know you all and felt part of a family, so very quickly, due to your warm and open welcome. Eleanor's leading as a supervisor has been challenging and heart-warming too: I would hope and expect nothing less from an experienced and skilled minister and a supervisor 😊 So I have been blessed abundantly and in many ways; my hope and prayer is that the blessing has been mutual and that some enduring friendships have been forged in the short time I have been here.

I'm excited to be watching from side lines your church moving into 'new pastures', into the renovated building and to the next phase, of calling a new minister, in due time. I'm hoping I might be able to come and see you at the time of the move, provided my new placement in September allows it. So let's just not call this good-bye for ever; at the same time as you as a church are moving to the new, I hope and trust you will continue to cherish and nourish also the old. It has been my pleasure and joy to be part of the Govan Old daily services during my placement and I cannot but hope that the service and the daily fellowship it provides will continue for another 100 years at least, as it is fully crafted into the program of the 'renovated & renewed' church. It's a bit like a wedding: something old, something new, something borrowed and something blue...I will provide the 'blue' as I will feel the 'blues' of leaving this church which is so dear to God.

God's Gang

In June we had our annual prize giving service and trip to Wellsfield Farm Park. It was a very lively service. All the children of the Church were represented in this special service. We all thoroughly enjoyed the puppets by Clincarthill Church. The songs and bible stories performed by the puppets were excellent and loved by everyone. A special thanks goes to Lena Caldwell for presenting the children their awards.

After Church we all headed to Wellsfield for the day. Once again we were blessed by lovely weather. Everyone, especially the children, had a fun time. We all headed home tired and happy after a great day.

At the start of this new academic year our thoughts, and prayers, are with all our children as they begin another school year. We wish them every success in their studies.

As we look forward to a new session at God's Gang I would like to thank the ministry team, all the Church families and congregation for their continued support.

Karen Stevely

Dear God,
Help me spend today
with a Smile on my face,
Love  in my heart,
 Joy in His grace,
and my thinking cap on all day.
Amen

The Guild

I'm writing this just before I go on my annual holiday and I am looking forward to a great week as I know a number of our members are looking forward to the opening of the Guild, it's nice to hear that many look forward to October and that a few would prefer I brought it forwards.

This is the beginning of August and we are busy organising our syllabus which is well underway. We are very grateful that so many people are keen to visit our Guild and are happy to come back and entertain us, this means you will be seeing some well known faces as well as some new ones.

The last session finished in May with our AGM and cream tea. Our outing was on Monday 11th June to Aberfoyle and Callander and we had a great day with only the one rain shower. Many of us spent our money in some of the bargain shops and unusual shops the towns have to offer. My favourite part, as usual was in the Woollen Mill in Aberfoyle where I could actually pet some sheep ☺ High tea in Callander was great with plenty to eat and amazing cakes.

A few of us will be travelling to Dundee at the beginning of September to the Annual Gathering and starting this year there is another option with Thornliebank Guild opening their doors to local Guilds to part take in the Annual Gathering via video technology without the travel to Dundee, this might be something to think about in years to come.

I hope you have all had a restful summer and I look forward to seeing you in October. If you have been thinking about joining us but haven't gotten round to it then please take the plunge and come and join us, you will be most welcome, there is no age barrier and we welcome men too.

God Bless

Love Elspeth

AN UNTOLD STORY: THE EXHIBITION

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT OUR PUBLIC EXHIBITION

August saw the former Royal Bank of Scotland transformed into a modern art gallery as part of Festival 2018. Veronica Jane Lynch, our artist in residence for An Untold Story, displayed local works by schools, Govan families, senior adults, the general public and her own bespoke designs.

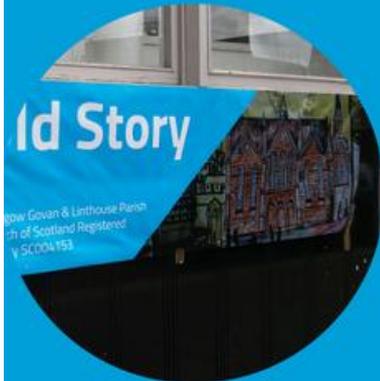

It was a celebration of all the work completed by participants and groups, which also encouraged conversation around the history of Govan & Linthouse Parish.

The exhibition saw an average attendance of around thirty five to forty individuals each day, from a variety of backgrounds. Some had past connections and others visited for the first time

THE NARNIA EXPERIENCE: COMING SOON

You may have heard of and maybe even enjoyed reading The Chronicles of Narnia books by C.S Lewis. Some may even have seen the more recent films with The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe being the most famous of these.

Set during World War II bombings of London, four English siblings are evacuated to a country house where they will be safe. One day Lucy finds a wardrobe that transports her to a magical winter world called Narnia. She soon returns with her siblings Peter, Susan and Edmund. There they join the magical lion, Aslan, in the fight against the evil White Witch.

The Narnia Experience is a live, interactive theatre experience and we want to bring Lucy's journey, as she walked through the wardrobe, to the people of Govan. Our Govan Cross building will be transformed, as part of the Govan Loves Christmas celebrations, into the land of Narnia, a place where 'it is always winter but never Christmas.' Groups will be guided through the story of good conquering evil and feel part of the action. We want all groups and people in the church, and in Govan to feel part of this event, so stay tuned for ways that you can be involved.

KNITTING NEEDLES AT THE READY

Yarn Bombing is the activity of covering objects or structures in public places with decorative knitted or crocheted material, as a form of street art. It has become increasingly popular as a way to brighten up our surroundings, and we hope to use it as a publicity stunt to promote The Narnia Experience.

We need a great number of winter woollens such as scarves, hats, gloves and mittens to decorate Central Govan. We are looking for keen knitters, crocheters and knitting groups to take part to decorate local landmarks, trees, lampposts and railings.

If you would like to take part please speak to Jamie Goodwin, or donate your items to Govan & Linthouse Parish by November 7th 2018. You never know Mary Barbour could be sporting your knitted creation.

34th Glasgow Girls' Brigade

Since the last magazine we have had a great weekend at Ardeonaig Outdoor Centre at Loch Tay on 18th-20th May.

On the way there we stopped at the Maid of the Loch restaurant at Loch Lomond and had a carvery.

At Ardeonaig we did archery, the rope course, challenges and took the Canadian canoes out onto the loch. Everyone had a great time.

On the way home we enjoyed a visit to the Sealife Centre at Loch Lomond where we got a guided tour. Thank you to Linda for bringing the packed lunches up to us on the Sunday.

Veronica Lynch, the artist, did some screen printing of t-shirts with the girls which they all thoroughly enjoyed.

Some of the officers will be going to the GB specialised training on Saturday 1st September where we will pick up some new ideas for the new session.

The company will be starting back on Wednesday 5th September at 6.30pm. If you know of any school aged girls who would like to join us please send them along.

Hope you've all had a good summer

Sandra MacDonald

119th Glasgow Boys Brigade

We are looking forward to the start of the new session on Friday 7th September 2018 and hope that it is another successful and enjoyable time. Events that we are looking forward to include the Partick District Sports Night in October, Battalion Panto in December and various other District and Battalion events and competitions.

We hope to continue our success in the colouring in competitions this year, where we won prizes in each one that we entered last year.

We look forward to welcoming new members to both sections and hope that Oscar, Kayden, Kian enjoy the new challenges as they move into the Junior Section.

Section times are:

Anchor Section – 6pm to 7.15pm

Junior Section – 7.30pm- 9pm

Thanks for your continued support.

The Meeting Place

As a faithful regular attendee at the Meeting Place I felt I should say a few words about it...the Meeting Place started after general discussions that this might be a chance for members of the church and the community to get together over lunch and just chat. This sounds such a simple silly thing but we have now been going for 8 months and everyone who attends really enjoys it. We started off in Govan Cross but since the renovations works started we have moved to the quiet room at Linthouse so if you are interested in coming along that's where you'll find us, each Thursday from 12-1.30pm. It's attendees are all church folk but if you know of anyone you think would like to come along then please spread the word. The set up is simple, bring your lunch with you and eat it in the company of others over a cuppa with some chat to go alongside it. There is no cost involved and no attendance book so you come if you want and don't worry if you can't. Most of us live alone and are happy with our own company but it's nice to spend time with others over lunch without it breaking the bank.

We had a visit from Veronica, our Artist in residence, and we were involved with the glass painting for the panels in the church. This was a wonderful experience and means that when we are back at Govan Cross we will all have a part in the new artwork.

The highlight of the groups was our trip to Helensburgh where 4 cars and passengers set off for the day, the weather was beautiful and the journey was not too long. Once we arrived we all split up and went our separate ways to explore what was on offer. Elsie and I had a lovely walk, some walked along the prom, some went to see the shops and tearooms, charity shops and well known draperies. Elsie and I made an executive decision about where we should eat and booked a slot in a wee cafe. The food was wonderful with fish and sausage teas, bread and butter and some even managed a sweet. Before we left we took another stroll along the prom and then all headed home. We all had a great day out with company, chat and food and hope to make this annual outing.

If anyone would like to join us then please do, just bring your lunch, your chat and a smile.

Best wishes

Elsbeth

Harvest Sunday Sunday 16th September

*All good gifts around us,
are sent for heaven above,
so thank the Lord, so thank the Lord,
for all His love.*

We celebrate Harvest Sunday this year on Sunday 16th September. It's a real opportunity to bring our own sense of thanksgiving, and celebrates God's goodness within our lives.

We again will take "dry" goods, and our donations will be taken to the Lodging House Mission in the east of the city. They work with the homeless of Glasgow, and our gifts go a little way in helping them do that work.

#throwbackthursday

Were you married or baptised in one of the buildings that embody Govan and Linthouse Parish Church? If so then we need your photos!! We are running a 'throwback' (photos that were taken over the years in or outside the churches that have made up GLPC) each Thursday on our facebook page @govanlighthouse and are looking for some familiar faces to post. Please like and share the church facebook page if you haven't already and keep your eyes peeled for our throwback posts 😊 Thank you to all the people who have sent in pictures so far.

I would like to thank everyone who sent me cards and congratulated me on being awarded an MBE. The Investiture will take place at Windsor Castle in November.

This was a great surprise to me and I would like to dedicate it to all the Youth Workers in the Church and to everyone who has worked so hard to get the Church renovated at Govan Cross. I'm looking forward to a fresh start in a building that is new to us all.

Thanks again,

Sandra MacDonald

Get Well Soon

A wee note to all our church family who are feeling under the weather and haven't been able to make church. We are thinking of you and you are in our prayers. If you know if someone is unwell and in need of a visit then please let us know.

Thank you

Our thanks go out to all who help with the running of the church, be it clearing things away, helping with teas, the count, the setting up, the clubs, the drop offs and pickups, the fixing of things, the painting, the weeding, the rubbish collecting, and everything else I can't think of. Without all the help and support many of the things we run would not be possible. Your help does not go unnoticed and it is very much appreciated.

Shoebox Appeal

It's that time again when we start thinking about shoeboxes! Can't believe it is a year since we last filled our shoeboxes. We were as usual blown away by the generosity of the congregation and managed to fill a fantastic 203 boxes! That's our record so far and we would love to beat it this year...

We are looking for – toiletries; especially toothpaste and soap, stationery, hats, gloves, scarves, underwear, face cloths, small toys, colouring pens or pencils, sweeties (no chocolate and a good sell by date), socks, etc basically anything small enough to fit in a shoe box and put a smile on someone face. If you want to help but are unsure what to get then money donations would be very much appreciated. We have in the past shown video clips of children receiving our boxes and it makes me for one realize how much we have and how little they have. All items must be new and no talcum powder or chocolate.

We will accept any items, and empty shoeboxes, from now until Sunday 7th October but the earlier we have things the easier it is to assess what we still need.

Let's see if we can beat last year's total, as you will see from the photos below we have already made a good start.

Many thanks in advance.

Dear Everyone,

Thank you very much indeed for your very kind gift to Glasgow Night Shelter for Destitute Asylum Seekers. We are very grateful. We are volunteers trying very hard to support street-destitute asylum seekers by giving them a hot evening meal and a secure place to sleep on a mattress in a sleeping bag. We could not do this without generous gifts from people like yourselves. This work is very gratifying. When the men first arrive at our door, they are frightened, bewildered, cold and hungry. It is amazing to see how quickly they start to walk tall again, make friends and smile.

Thank you again.
